

Online Remote Testing for your next hiring process

Think you can't test your applicants because of shelter-in-place and social distancing?

Bring the test to them!

INTRODUCING:

The National Firefighter Selection Test and the National Firefighter Selection Test-Emergency Medical Services (NFST/NFST-EMS) Form E

Your need for firefighters and firefighter/paramedics hasn't stopped just because of COVID-19. Continue to recruit qualified firefighters – from home!

Stanard & Associates' National Firefighter Selection Test (NFST) and National Firefighter Selection Test-Emergency Medical Services (NFST-EMS) – Form E exams gives you the remote, online testing option your agency needs to continue its recruiting efforts by assessing candidates at home. All your candidates need is a computer and an internet connection.

NFST/NFST-EMS – Form E were created specifically to help agencies like yours continue your hiring processes despite the pandemic. Simply purchase credits for candidates to take the test online. Candidates complete the test based on the department's timeline. Responses are sent to Stanard & Associates for quick scoring and turnaround. Candidates can prepare with our candidate study guide and practice test which are available for purchase at www.ApplyToServe.com/Study/.

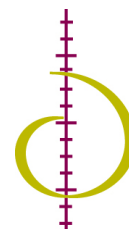

NFST/NFST-EMS screens your candidates to ensure competency in three basic skill areas:

- Listening Comprehension
- Reading Comprehension
- Mathematics

For additional information or to schedule a conference call with a S&A Public Safety Sales Consultant, please contact us at sales@stanard.com or 800.367.6919.

Stanard
& Associates, Inc.

Data for Decisions in Management